OPAC Assistant Orchard Manager

About OPAC
OPAC is dedicated to growing great fruit, growing great people and growing great communities. In an industry facing rapid expansion, the OPAC team delivers orchard management and post-harvest services to kiwifruit growers in the eastern Bay of Plenty and Gisborne. OPAC's grower returns are amongst the best in the industry. By focusing on best practice techniques, innovation and with recent substantial investments in leading edge technology we seek to continue our growth and transform our community. An opportunity has come up in our Orchard Operations team, for an experienced Orchardist to look after an established portfolio of managed and leased orchards, alongside and with a wealth of growing experience and a great team. This role is based in Te Kaha however will require weekly travel to Opotiki.

Key responsibilities of the role:

- Plan and deliver on-orchard growing activities exceeding expectations of clients
- Lead and support orchard team members. Create and encourage a culture of strong teamwork and "out of the box" thinking
- Contribute to strategic and business planning for overall orchard operations at OPAC and as a member of the Harvest team
- Develop an excellent rapport and relationships with employees, growers, suppliers and peers

Key requirements of the role:

- Good knowledge of the kiwifruit industry and a solid understanding of the key drivers of profit, gained by experience
- Strong knowledge and understanding of people management and development, gained through formal training courses and experience
- A professional approach to the role, including a highly ethical and impartial approach, discretion and the ability to respect confidentiality
- The ability to inspire employees and lead by example
- A balance of energy, patience and entrepreneurial thinking

How to apply:
Drop into the office OPAC 93 Waioeka Road, Opotiki Monday to Friday between 8.00am and 5.00 pm
Download an application form from www.opac.co.nz | Email us on - work@opac.co.nz
Or for further information call us on (07) 315 8700

If you apply, your application will be given full consideration. To make sure we are keeping OPAC people safer successful applicants will be required to undergo pre-employment drug testing.
