MX1 championship finals loom for Cooper

ANDY MCGECHAN,

THE 2019 New Zealand Motocross Championships wrap up in Taupo this coming weekend with plenty still at stake, particularly in the premier MX1 class.

The intense Australia versus Kiwi rivalry in this year's Fox-sponsored national series has provided extra bite to the competition and perhaps no more so that in the MX1 class, where former Opotiki and Mount Maunganui's six-time champion Cody Cooper enjoys a slim three-point advantage over the defending champion, Australia's Kirk Gibbs, as they head to Taupo's Digger McEwen Motocross Park for the final showdown on Sunday.

Hamilton's Kayne Lamont holds onto the third spot overall in the series standings and his performance at Taupo on Sunday could be crucial.

If Lamont gets between the duelling Cooper and Gibbs, then the points calculations could fly out the window.

In was a fierce Kiwi versus Aussie battle in the MX2 (250cc) class too, with defending champion Hamish Harwood, from West Auckland, coming under fire from visiting Australians Wilson Todd and Kyle Webster at the previous rounds, with another Australian, Morgan Fogarty, also among the top five.

But the Australian threat has been dulled with Todd crashing and injuring himself at Pukekohe's third round of the series two weeks ago.

This weekend's final round of the Fox 2019 New Zealand Motocross Championships is supported by Yamalube and the series is sponsored by FOX Racing NZ, Suzuki NZ, Yamaha NZ, Blue Wing Honda, Aon Insurance, ICG Print and Pirelli.

IN MEMORIAM

WILMSHURST, D. Blair 18-06-1942 to 07-03-2009

Ten years ago today you were set free to fly like an eagle.

*The eagle soared above my head,
my spirit guide was free,
I felt the pull but could not reach,
he was too high for me.*

*But, then you came, and lifted me,
with love as pure as light,
My feet left the ground, you gifted me,
again you gave me flight.*

Greatly missed by so many and until we meet again - Fly DB Fly.
